

I strongly urge you to refrain from changing the current regulations concerning media ownership. There is already too much concentration of ownership and a corresponding loss of diverse opinions. It is imperative that minority voices can be heard. Our democracy is at stake!